

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff

v.

CRIMINAL 04-0250 (JAG)

[3] NEVILLE CLAUDE HUE, aka
FLIPI,

Defendant

MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
RE: RULE 11(c)(1)(B) PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

I. Personal Background

On June 23, 2005, Neville Claude Hue, the defendant herein, was charged in a two count-indictment. The defendant agrees to plea guilty to count two of the indictment.

Count one charge the defendant with knowingly conducted and attempted to conduct a financial transaction through a financial institution, affecting interstate and foreign commerce, in criminally derived property, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1957.

Defendant filed a motion for change of plea on December 22, 2005.

II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

On February 2, while assisted by Robert Odasz and Stephen Rosen, Esqs., the defendant, by consent, appeared before me in order to change his previous not guilty plea to a plea of guilty as to count one of the indictment.

In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing being held. The defendant responded that the purpose of the hearing was to plead guilty. The defendant was advised of his right to have all proceedings, including the change of plea hearing, before a United States district judge. Defendant was given notice of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries were to be conducted under oath and that it was expected that his answers would be truthful (he was also explained that the consequences of lying under oath could lead to a perjury charge); and (c) his right to have the change of plea proceedings presided over by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was also explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two. The defendant consent to proceed before this magistrate judge.

III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

A. Compliance With Requirements Rule 11(c)(1)

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and he understood that if convicted on count two, he may be sentenced to a fine of not more than $250,000, or a term of imprisonment which may not be more than 10 years, or both, and a term of supervised release of not more than three years. The court must impose a mandatory penalty assessment of $100, to be deposited in the Crime Victim Fund, pursuant 18 U.S.C. 3013.

3 The defendant agrees that any fine or restitution imposed by the court will be 4 due and payable immediately. Defendant further agrees to provide financial 5 statements as requested by the United States.

6 Defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the
7 court to decide in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term
8 and fine were to be imposed upon him, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea
9 if he was unhappy with the sentence of the court. The defendant understood this.

10 Defendant was explained what the supervised release term means. It was 11 emphasized that cooperation with the United States Probation officer would assist
12 the court in reaching a fair sentence.

13 Emphasis was made on the fact that at this stage, no prediction or promises
14 as to the sentence to be imposed could be made by anyone. Defendant responded to 15 questions in that no promises, threats, inducements or predictions as to what
16 sentence will be imposed have been made to him.

17 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

18 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant
19 was advised of his right:

20 1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the 21 government who has the burden of proving his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

22 2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no comment could be made by 23 the prosecution in relation to his decision not to testify.

24 3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would be 25 entitled to see and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on his 26 behalf, and challenge the government's evidence.

27
28

1 CRIMINAL 04-0250 (JAG)

3 4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which
4 would have to be convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means
5 of competent evidence.

6 5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of 7 witnesses.

8 Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his
9 speaking with his attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully
10 understood his rights, it is determined that defendant is aware of his constitutional
11 rights.

12 C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

13 Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised
14 of the consequences of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by 15 pleading guilty and upon having his guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be 16 giving up the above rights and would be convicted solely on his statement that he is 17 guilty.

18 Furthermore, the defendant was admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty
19 he would not be allowed later on to withdraw his plea because he eventually might
20 disagree with the sentence imposed, and that when he were under supervised
21 release, and upon violating the conditions of such release, that privilege could be
22 revoked and he could be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment.

23 D. Plea Agreement

24 The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed
25 by the government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the 26 record. Defendant was clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

27 1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court.
28

3 2. The plea agreement is an "agreement" between the defendant, defense
4 attorney and the attorney for the government which is presented as a
5 recommendation to the court in regards to the applicable sentencing adjustments
6 and guidelines, which are advisory.

7 3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated
8 sentencing guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the 9 sentencing court.

10 4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation
11 contained therein, the sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea
12 agreement and impose any sentence up to the possible maximum penalty prescribed
13 by statute.

14 Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

15 E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

16 The government presented a proffer of its evidence with which the defendant
17 concurred.

18 Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact and evidence to 19 establish all elements of the offense charged.

20 F. Voluntariness

21 The defendant accepted that no leniency had been promised, no threats had
22 been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he did not feel pressured to plead
23 guilty. He came to the hearing for the purpose of pleading guilty and listened 24 attentively as the prosecutor outlined the facts which it would prove if the case had 25 proceeded to trial.

IV. Conclusion

The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to count two of the indictment.

After cautioning and examining the defendant under oath and in open court, concerning each of the subject matters mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the preceding sections, I find that the defendant Neville Claude Hue is competent to enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charge is supported by the government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the offense charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.

Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to count two of the indictment. At sentencing the United States will request the dismissal of count one of the indictment.

This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Rule 72(d) of the Local Rules of Court. Any objections to the same must be specific and must be filed with the Clerk of Court within five (5) days of its receipt. Rule 510.1, Local Rules of Court; Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). Failure to timely file specific objections to the report and recommendation is a waiver of the right to review by the district court. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F.2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).

At San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 8th day of February, 2006.
